

Links

GOVERNOR RELATED LINKS

GovernorLine

Free advice, information and support across all areas of school governance 7 days a week

GovernorNet

GovernorNet provides up-to-date information on all aspects of school governance and features links to other useful sites

Information for School and College Governors

ISCG provides governors with practical advice, independent and up-to-date information, and relevant services

National Governors' Association

The National Governors' Association is the representative body for school governors in England

School Governors One Stop Shop

A small company with charitable status which aims to recruit people with transferable skills from the world of work, to fill vacancies and to add value in schools in England where they are needed most

TES Governors Information Network

Free service provided by the Times Educational Supplements to keep all school governors up-to-date with the latest governor news

GOVERNMENT RELATED LINKS

Department for Education and Skills

Key government department responsible for education

National Curriculum Online

Read or download the full text of the revised National Curriculum

Office for Standards in Education

Ofsted is responsible for the inspection of all schools in England, whether state or independent

Qualifications and Curriculum Authority

The QCA brings together the work of the National Council for vocational qualifications and the school curriculum and assessment authority plus additional powers and duties

GENERAL SITES

Islam at School

This site is dedicated to offering youth better resources which teach Islam from an intelligent perspective

Muslim Council of Britain

Consultation, co-operation and co-ordination on Muslim affairs in the UK

Muslim Educational
Trust

Established in 1966 as a registered educational charity to increase the number of services for Muslims in education

Muslim News

News and views of Muslims in the UK

Muslim Parents
Association

Association for parents who send their children to an independent or a voluntary Aided Muslim School

Muslim Education News

Education news specific to Muslims covering such issues as single-sex education, hijab and exam performance tables

Teaching Times

Read all about what is happening in the world of British education

Times Educational Supplement

Leading education newspaper

Muslim Weekly

News and views of Muslims in the UK